BECAUSE EVERY LOVE IS LOVE

Esme and her little sister Clara are best friends. Clara's mum and Esme's mum are best friends, too. And in this book, Esme tells how Esme's dad became Clara's dad as well. Sounds complicated? Not at all. Families are different and colourful – even more colourful than a rainbow. A warm-hearted story about the many different forms a family can take.

THE AUTHOR

Kirsten Reinhardt grew up in a small town in the Lüneburger Heide and in Yokohama, Japan. Today, she lives with her family in Berlin and is an author. When she is not busy thinking up, writing or translating new stories, she works on productions for children's theatre. Kirsten Reinhardt was awarded the 'Oldenburger Kinder- und Jugendbuchpreis' and has won numerous grants. Clara is her second illustrated book.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Christiane Fürtges was born in Mülheim an der Ruhr. She studied communication design at the Folkwangschule in Essen with a focus on illustration and free drawing. Since her graduation in 2003, she has worked as a freelance illustrator.

USPs

- With few words and likeable heroes and heroines, this illustrated book shows how diverse and boundless love is
- A poetic and child-appropriate tale which playfully overcomes our preconceived ideas of a classic family constellation
- With beautiful, sensitive illustrations

MERRY CHRISTMAS DOWN ON THE FARM

The black-faced sheep Franzi is to play the leading role in this year's nativity play at the Martinshof farm. But her own wild temperament and the jealousy of sheep Emmi, who was always the star of the performance in past years, create havoc with Franzi's preparations for the Christmas play. And there is a lot at stake: if the performance fails to make a profit, it could mean the end for the farm. Luckily, Franzi has sheep Karla and Olga the cow, two very dear, if slightly forgetful, friends. And against all odds, the nativity play is a resounding success!

THE AUTHOR

Susanne Orosz, born in Vienna in 1962, studied German and philosophy in Munich and scriptwriting at the Hamburg Media School. She writes books for children and young people, scripts and stories for radio. Her publications have won numerous prizes and have been translated into various languages.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Stefanie Jeschke studied visual communication at the Bauhaus University in Weimar. As a student, she already worked for various publishing houses as an illustrator of books for children and young people. In 2012, she opened her own small workshop for illustration in the province of Brandenburg. She lives and works in the small historic town of Treuenbrietzen in a house which is over a hundred years old and in which she regularly exhibits her original illustrations.

USPs

- Everything is in uproar down on the farm: this wittily illustrated Christmas story is guaranteed to captivate your audience
- A completely different look at the nativity play: how black-faced sheep Franzi becomes a real Christmas sheep
- Witty perspective: sheep Franzi relates the humorous entanglements which occur before the curtain can finally rise on the Christmas play

THE FASCINATION OF THE EVERYDAY

Children are irresistibly drawn to puddles: it rains, a small amount of water accumulates on the path, and two minutes later, they are splashing happily about in it. But a puddle is so much more! This book describes the diversity of a hidden microcosm. It explains what makes one puddle different from another, why the number of puddles is decreasing, the lifecycle of a puddle and the living organisms it contains. Who would have thought a puddle could be home to such exciting creatures as hairybacks and water bears?

THE AUTHOR

Dr. Angelika Huber-Janisch grew up in a small village in Upper Bavaria and now lives with her husband near Landshut. She studied biology and never lost her passion for writing. For more than 20 years, she has written articles for various magazines. In 2010, she received the 'German Award for Nature Journalism', special award 'Der Wilde Rabe', for publications in children's and youth-oriented media.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Annette Zacharias lives in Berlin and on the Baltic coast. As a freelancer and agency employee, in addition to illustrations and editorial drafts, she has created logos, websites, CI content, storyboards, photographs, stage sets and classical products. Teaching design is a topic very close to her heart, whether to students or as part of cross-disciplinary school projects.

USPs

- In this attractively designed, large-format book, an award-winning biologist takes a look at an exciting microcosm through a magnifying glass
- The first illustrated non-fiction book for children on puddles, ponds, pools and their inhabitants
- Unique naturalistic illustrations invite young (and old) students of nature to discover and be amazed by a hidden world
